attention was particularly turned to spread temperance principles among children. Mr. Jonathan Revell, now laboring so zealously and successfully in establishin "Bands of Hope" in New-York and Brooklyn, and also engaged in the Five Points House of Industry ildren, has been the means of gathering up many children from the cellars, streets, highways, and lowest places of resort of dranken parents, orphans, thieves, outcasts, &c. &c., and getting them into the

Mr. Revell was employed to establish "Bands of Hope" in Ireland a few years ago, and succeeded in founding a union in Belfaet, establishing many societies forming committees, appointing officers, and enlisting the influence of many gentlemen and ladies of influence to assist in the movement. Rev. Father Spratt. D. D., of Dublin, Judge Crampton, and many ministers ard laymen of different sects, he procured to aid in the movement. About 15,000 of the juvenile portion of Ireland took the temperance pledge of Mr. Reveil, and are enrolled abstainers in the "Band of Hope Union." In the North of Ecgland, also, he succeeded in joinin several thousand children to the "Band of Hope. And the "Band of Hope" of New-York and Brooklyn is full of promise. It would be well if every city we favored with a man so earnest, sincere, disintere and successful among children as Mr. Revell, and it is

Mr Revell has also been the means of establishing in Ire'and a Juvenile Reformatory Institution near Belfast, or in Belfast, wherever a site of ground for building can be obtained most suitable. Many ladies and gentlemen of infinence have subscribed largely already toward its erection. It is to be conducted similarly to the Five Points House of Industry. This was the result of Mr. Revell's last visit to Ireland in 1858, as the Irish papers stated at the time.

"day of October, 1856, in the said action, at the suit said Giles Porter against this deponent, that he was indebted to the said Giles Porter in the sum of $25,500; whereas, in truth and in fact, the real indebtedness of this deponent to Giles Porter did not exceed, if indeed it amounted to so much as the sum of $14,000, as said James L. Porter then well krew; and tole deponent further says that a purpose to defraud the Park Bank was conceived by said James L. Porter a short time anterior to the execution of said paper, and to nee the name of this deponest for said purpose; that on or about the lat day of June, 1856, in furtherance of said purpose and at the instance of the said James L. Porter, an account was opened at the said Bank in the name of this deponent, and thereupon a fictitious credit was made for this deponent with the said Bank by the deposit of checks of other persons on other banks for large amounts, which were uniformly bonored by the backs upon which they were drawn, till on or about the 25th day of September 'rext following; that among the checks so deposited were checks signed, some with the name of Abner W. Spooner and some with the name of John Harring, both of whom were insolvent and wholly irresponsible, the former being only a clerk of this deponent 'and the latter a son-in-law of the porter of the 'Tradesmers' Bank, and living over the bank; that at the instance of said James L. Porter said Harring was represented to one or more of the officers of the Park Bank as a broker in good credit, when in fact he was only a bar-tender in a small restaurant, kept by a person of the name of Porter, in the basement of the Lafarge House; that said Harring, though without means of his own, keeps a small balance of $100 or $200 in the Tradesmens' Bank, which, together with the fands necessary to meet his checks, was furnished to him, and so kept at the instance of said James L. Porter in furtherance of said purpose; that on the 25th day of September, 1856, there was deposited in the Park Bank to the credit of this deponent, in further prosecution of said purpose, two checks of said Spooner and two check of said Harring, amounting in all to about $6,825, all of which was dishouored, there being no funds in the banks on which said checks were drawn. Other checks of said Spooner and Harring for large amounts were on the next day offered at the Park Bank for deposit, to the credit of this deponent, which were refused. Deponent farther says that the Park Bank has recovered judgment against him for the amount of said checks so dishonored, but has not as yet been able to realize the amount thereof, in consequence of the fraudulent transactions hereinbefore set forth." Upon the above complaint, Justice Connolley issued his warrant for the arrest of Fredericks, Porter and Spooner, and placed the writ in the hands of one of his

STABBING AFFRAYS .- Patrick Brady and Nicholas H. Moore had an old grudge against each other. Oa Saturday night they came in collision in Twenty-second street, a short distance from the Eighteenth Ward Police Station, when the hatchet which had slumbered peacefully for some time, was dug up, and at it they went, Mr. Thomas Barton, residing at No 72 Twentysecond street, standing in his doorway and witnessing the fight. Mr. Barton alleges that after the termination of the affray he saw Moore walking up and down on the opposite side of the street, and heard some peop'e who had gathered about him say that "Brady, the hod-carrier, had stabbed him." Officer Harris of the same precinct alleges that while on duty in the Station-House Moore came in, having Brady under arrest. Moore said he had a difficulty with Brady, and during a scuffle that ensued he fell, and, while down, Brady stabbed him in the left side with a pocket knife. Medical attendance was promptly rendered to the injured man, and after his wounds were dressed he was conveyed to Bellevue Hospital, where he now lies in a critical condition. The accused was committed to prison by Justice Quackenbush.

About 12 o'clock on Saturday night, one William F. Beker, who, with his wife, had for some time past boarded with James Lynch, corner of Elm and Pear streets, entered the house and informed the landlord that he was going to move. Lynch, at hearing this, became frightfully enraged, and springing up, seized a sharp-pointed shoe-knife, with which he stabbed Baker in the abdomen, inflicting a bad wound. Not yet content, Lynch again plunged the knife twice in the back and shoulder of his victim. Officer Muldoon of the Sixth Precinct, hearing the alarm that had been raised, hastered to the spot, which he reached just in time to secure Lynch. Baker was removed to the New-York Hospital, and the physician under whose care he was placed expressed it as his opinion that he could not rvive more than a day or two. The unfortunate man has no family except a wife. Lynch is a shoemaker by trade, and has been committed to prison to await the result of Baker's injuries. His wife was also taken in custody for alleged participation in the murderous assault. It has not yet appeared that there was any provocation for the assault.

THE ELM STREET MURDER.-Coroner Gamble, on Saturday, impanneled a jury to hold an inquest upon the body of Wilhelm Decker, the second victim of the Elm street tragedy, and at 10 o'clock this morning testimony in the case will be taken at the Sixth Ward Station-House.

ANOTHER STABBING CASE .- A sailor named John McDonald was apprehended yesterday morning, charged with feloniously assaulting one Wm. Close, of No. 22 Murray street. Close alleges that McDonald gave bim several fearful gashes across the nose, cheeks and hands with a butcher knife. The magistrate at the Tombe sent McDonald to prison.

ARREST OF AN ALLEGED SHOPLIFTER .- About 7 ARREST OF AN ALLEGED SHOPLIFTER.—About 7 o'clock on Friday evening, Angustus Marshal, a German woman, entered the store of Mesera W. C. & J. T. Potter, No. 435 Hadson street, and, as charged, stole therefrom various articles of clothing, valued at $20. The theft was discovered, and the alarm given, when Officer Cholwell of the Ninth Freclack arrived and arrested her. She was taken to the Station-House, and after much difficulty Sergeant Luah and Officers Cholwell and Hanisen, ascertaining that the accused lived in an attic-room of the premises comer of Thirty-fifth street and Eighth avenue, proceeded bithet to make a search. Her room proved to be a mine of dry goods of almost every imaginable description. Among them are valuable mantillas, slid dreases, basques, shawls, ladies' hats, handkerchiefs, sentlemen's ciothing, quilits, laces, &c. The goods, all of which are supposed to have been stolen, wore some veyed to the Ninth Ward Station House, and placed in care of Capt. Sebeling, where they can be seen for several days. The accused was held for examination.

ALLIEBD ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY.—Not far from the o'clock on Saturday morning, Mr. Luther Baldwin, keeping a hardware store at No. 207 Bowery, was aroused from his slumier by hearing burglars in the act of breaking opon the soutters of a reer window leading to his store. Mr. Baldwin, who sleeps in his store, instantly jumped out of bed, and hastening to the spot from whence the hoise emenated, gave the alarm, and at the same time saw two youngsters making their scape. The slarm was heard by Officer Green of the Tenth Frechnet, who pursued and arrested one of the fugitives, who gave his name as Christian Foater. He is a Germen boy only 16 years of age. His confederate, who ran in an opposite direction, made his examp. Foater confessed that he went to the store of Mr. Baldwin, with the other boy, for the purpose of committing a burglary. The prisoner was locked up for a hearing before Justice Brennau.

ARREST OF SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS.—Officer Shophed of the Seventh Precinct arrested three young men, giving their names as Patrick Madden, John Weish and John Ward, when he from prowing about the apper portion of the Precinct under very suspicious circumstances. On searching the principles at the Station-House, burglary tools, pistols, and other improper implements were found in their possession. They were detained for examination by Justice Brennan.

Alleged Highway Robber, -Two men, giving their names as James McCormick and Edward Wilson, and their place of shole as No. 10 Sattery place, were taken in custody seateday morning on a charge of nighway robbert, preferred by Thomas Alexander of No. 25 Greenwish street. Mr. A nileges that on the previous might, the accused knocked him down and robbed nim of $1.5 in gold, and then fied. Justice Connoily committed the fellows in default of $1.00 seach for trial. McCormick is an Englishman, and his comrade an Irish-again, when one of them knowled him over the head with a piece of pipe, and the two men then forced him toto a corner for the purpose of continuing the assualt, when Dolan interfered and dragged Manefield away. Leahy then went up retains and returning with a carpenter's keifs, brandished it, and wished to ranew the fight. One or two other persons coming in, the desperadors were driven from the premises and were subsequently arrested. Justice Kelly committed the prisoners for trial.

ALLEGED SHOPLIFTER,-Mary Ann Wheeler, alias Smith, and to be a notorious shopliber, was taken into enstedy yesterday, by Officer Woodbridge of the Sixth Precision, charged with having stoken $62 worth of six from the store of A. T. Sixwart, in November last. Mary Ann was arrested at the time, but the witnesses having been spirited away, the Grand Jury did not find a bill against her. She is now in prison, ball being refused by the District-Automay.

FATAL HATCHWAY ACCIDENT .- Coroner Gamble FATAL HATCHWAY ACCIDENT.—Coroner Gamble held an inquest on Saturian upon the body of Thomas Miller, a porter in the employ of B. M. & E. A. Whitlock & Co., during business at No. 13 Beekman street, who, while engaged in hotating goods into the fifth story of the building, seedentially telebrough the hatchway to the first floor and was almost instantly killed. Deceased was a native of Germany, 37 years of ago, and leaves a family. The Coroner's Jury rendered a verdict of Accidental death.

DEATH FROM SCALDS.—Coroner Gamble held an inquest at No. 24 City Hall place, on the body of Thomas Davidson, a child two years of age, whose death was caused by a pot of boiling coffee being accidentally upeet, and falling upon him on the 22d inst. A verdict to that effect was rendered by

At 4 o'clock on Saturday morning a fire broke out in the building No. 341 Eighth street, first floor, occuat 44 o clock on Saturday morning a me toroccoupled by Gustavus Doran as a grocery store; upper part by several families as dwellings. The fire originated in the cellar, used for weod-houses and storage, and thence extended to the store and upper stories. The firemen were promptly on the ground, but before they could subdue the flames the building was damaged to the amount of $500 and the stock in the grocery to the amount of $500 and the stock in the grocery to the amount of $500.

A scene of wild confusion ensued among the tenants, who, being unable to get out by means of the stairway, appeared at the windows and implored loudly for help. Mr. George W. Church owns the building, and the loss is fully covered by insurance.

Mr. Wro. H. Sanders, a member of Eugine Company No. 44, at the risk of his life entered the burning building and saved two children named Julia and Elizabeth Kapf. A member of Company No. 22 saved John Basslen, a little boy. The little fellow was sitting in the center of a large room on the fourth floor, nearly saffocated by the smoke. The children were insersible when brought out. They were taken to the Station-House and medical aid summoned. The origin of the fire is unknown.

FIRE IN BLEECKER STREET.

The alarm of fire in the Third District on Saturday morning was caused by the burning of a straw bed in the dweiling-house No. 289 Bleecker street, occupied by John Schimble. About $200 damage was done Insured in the Stayvesant Insurance Company.

About noon of yesterday, a fire occurred in the bakery of Thomas Geller, No. 157 Attorney street, in consequence of the ignition of some shavings which had been carelessly left near the oven. The stock was damaged to the amount of $200. Insured for $600 in the Market Insurance Company. The building was damaged to the amount of $59. Fully insured. FIRES IN BROOKLYN.

About 2 o'clock on Sunday morning, a fire broke out in a frame building situate on Prospect Hill, owned by Isaac Smith, and lately occupied by Males Wood as a tavern. The building, with its contents, was totally destroyed, and as it was unoccupied at the time, is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The los was about $400; no insurance.

About the same time, a stable in Duffield street, rear Fulton avenue, was found to be on tire. The fiames were suppressed, however, before much damage was done. The premises are owned by Abraham Stootheff. Damage about $25.

About 10 o clock on Sunday morning, a fire was discovered in a large unfinished brick house in Ormond street, near Fulton avenue. The flames soon extended to an adjoining building, and the interior wood-work of both was burnt out. The loss will amount to about $3,000. There can be no doubt that the fire was the work of an incendiary.

The Hobbors Street-Contract Case.—We published a few days since a paragraph referring to the fact that a contractor had been overpaid nearly $5,000 or street work, and it was surmised that there had been collusion between some of the city efficials and the person employed to de the work. The facts embraced are these: Edward McGuire of New-York had a contract for paving and flagging certain streets in Hebeken; as the work was from time to time completed, by streets or blocks, McGuire was given, ascording to the previsions of the contract, improvement certificates, payable in days, for 75 per cent of the work completed, the belance of 25 per cent to be paid when the eather work was insished. Each of the city Council for $5,99 94—being in full for the whole work—accompanied by a certificate from the City Surveyor, as to its correctness. The claim was referred to the Committee on Streets and Assessments, who subsequently reported, it correct and recommended that certificates be given McGuire for the amount, neglecting to deduct the payments which had been made him of 75 per cent. The recommendation of the Committee was adopted by the Board, and certificates were issued to McGuire for the full amount, without being objected to on his part, making a total of $15,290. This error was not discopered by the officers of the Corporation until some two months afterward, when it was revealed by the hability of the Treasurer to cancel the certificates with he assessment that had been lard by the contract of $5,300. ARMY AND NAVY INTELLIGENCE.

Major. L. J. Boale, U. S. A., who was lately on duty at San Antonio, Texas, has returned from that place, and will futhwith repair to St. Louis, in compliance with orders from the War Departme Major Longstreet has reported for duty at Fort Leavenworth, where he will remain till further orders. We learn from the Home Squadron that the flag-ship Roanoke was waiting at Aspinwall the arrival of the rew commander-in-chief, Commodore McCluney. Her future movements were, therefore, unknown. The Jamestown was cruising off the mouth of the Colorade, and the Savannah had been dragged by a river steamer off the shallow bar where she was so long hald fast. The health of the officers and crows was good. Our advices from the Pacific, state that the sk war S'. Marys had arrived at Acapalco, her commander not knowing that his ship's company's relief was waiting for him at Panama. The steam frigate Saranac had been sent after the St. Marys, but it was feared that the latter would have reached Guayana before the steamer could come up with her. The Cyane, which left Norfolk in November, and touched at Rio six weeks ago, en route to her new quarters, was daily expected at Valparaiso. The flag-ship Mari-mack, Com. Long, as reported in THE TRIBURE correspondence on Saturday, was at Real-jo, nearly out of provisions. The Decatur had left that port, for San Jaan del Sur; her commander had official information from the Mavy Department that his vessel would re-

Coroner Schirman was notified of her death, and on Saturday proceeded to the house and held an inquest upon the body, when it appeared in evidence that both husband and wife quarreling and fighting together. On Thursday night the woman was brought home drunk and placed in bed. Shortly afterward, her husband entered the room, and, taking a heavy leather strap from around his body, he commenced beating his wife over the face and head. He continued his brutality until the poor women was almost insunsible and then dragged her out of bed and threw her into the hall-way, where she bled profusely. He then continued the beating until she was covered over with bruises and excoriations. ALLEGED CONSPIRACY .- Mr. Robert Davis, at resent confined in the Eldridge street Jail on an order f arrest issued by the Supreme Court of this State in a civil action brought by the Park Bank of this city, Lower Police Court, against James L. Porter, Linsen D. Fredericks, a lawyer, and Abrer W. Spooner, charging them with having conspired together to establish a false credit at the Park Bank with intent to defraud that institution out of a large amount of money. The scheme, it would appear, proved successful, and the Bank was very cleverly swindled out of nearly $7,000. Mr. Davis alleges that on or about the 2d of October, 1856, he executed and delivered to Fredericks what purported to be an assignment of all his (Davis) goods and property. Davis was in prison when the seeignment was brought to him all ready prepared by Fredericks and Porter for execution, they urging that it should be done forthwith as there was no time to lose. He had no time to examine or consider the matter set forth in the instrument, and, acting under the advice of Fredericks and Porter, and at their earnest solicitation, he executed the document, which was witnessed by a Commissioner of Deeds whom they had brought with them. It subsequently appeared that in said paper Fredericks was ramed as a creditor of Mr. to the amount of about $3,029 98 for money

$26,500, for money loaned. Davis alleges that the amounts for which the above named were preferred greatly exceed the amounts due them, as they well The document was brought to light by an injunction issued by the Supreme Court restraining Fredericks, Porter and others from selling, assigning, transferring or in any way disposing of any property belonging to Davis, particularly the goods then in the store Nos. 644 and 646 Broadway.
